Adult reader participation disclosure | Books & Studies

This unsigned review copy describes a Christian book club for reading Christian books and devotionals, reflection, discussion, and fellowship. Submit an interest form to express interest; it is not enrollment, a signed agreement, or authorization to charge. Confirm the meeting details below before using this disclosure for participation.

Confirm the gathering

Selected book or devotional: _____

Meeting dates, times and time zone: _____

Location or online format and organizer: _____

Any required purchase, fee, payment, cancellation, or rescheduling terms must be disclosed and accepted separately in writing before payment. This disclosure sets no price, recurring payment, subscription, or purchase obligation. Contact CWP if a gathering changes or you need to withdraw.

Purpose and personal choice

Discussion is Christ-centered spiritual reflection and biblical encouragement. It is not psychotherapy, medical care, substance use treatment, crisis intervention, or individualized professional advice. Participation does not replace professional care. You may ask questions, decline an activity or sensitive disclosure, take a break, or leave. No spiritual, emotional, or relationship outcome is guaranteed.

Respect and privacy in a group

Listen respectfully and do not repeat another person's identifiable personal story outside the group. CWP cannot guarantee the conduct or confidentiality of other participants. Share only what you are comfortable sharing. Privacy remains subject to disclosures required by law and lawful safety reporting. Recording, photography, transcription, publicity, or use of a testimony requires separate informed permission; this form is not a media release.

Books and boundaries

Respect the copyright of each author and publisher. Access is for lawful personal reading and group discussion, not permission to copy or distribute protected books or CWP materials. This book club grants no coaching, leadership, ministry, or curriculum-teaching credential or authorization.
